PIRATE LOG

FOREWORD

We hope that the 1947 PIRATE'S LOG will create a well remembered picture of those cherished dreams of your high school days. We hope also, that it will mean more to you than a summary of the year's events.

Each student, upon entering high school, sets out upon a career to reach his finest and richest goal, that of being on his own out in the wide, wide world. His experiences are many, with all the ups and downs waiting for him to traverse. Here, then, in picture and story, is a record of those experiences. We hope that you will enjoy it.

DEDICATION

The graduating class of 1947 dedicate this book to the memory of a former classmate, Ralph Zelenka, who was lost to them in 1945 through a fatal illness.

The class deeply regret that Ralph could not have finished his school career with them. They cherish a deep affection for him, and many happy memories of the years they enjoyed with him.

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '47 began its search for hidden treasure in 1942, with thirty two members boarding the huge pirate ship. Thomas Burns was chosen as captain of the crew, Jack Nimmo as co-captain and Colleen Evans as keeper of the gold. Katherine Jelaco and Bill Connor were elected as representatives to the student council. Under the excellent guidance of Miss Mary Elizabeth Gallagher, the ship came safely through its first year at sea.

With the dawn of the second year of travel, the Pirates eagerly began their search. Tom Burns was re-elected captain; Jack Nimmo co-captain and Colleen Evans keeper-of-the-gold. Miss Marjorie Wells acted as their sponsor. Lorine Nigra and Bill Connor represented the crew in the student council. A picnic climaxed the sophomore year.

After a three months' shore leave, the Class of '47, with renewed hope and inspiration again boarded the ship, this time as juniors. Richard Borzaga was chosen to lead the Pirates on their stormy course. Kenneth Delgado was co-captain. Colleen Evans again became the keeper-of-the-log with Joan Duzik to help her with the gold. Miss Jane Lutzke was the sponsor. Homecoming was highlighted by the coronation of Tom Burns and Joan Duzik as King and Queen. The class play, under the direction of Miss Regina Black, was a comedy entitled "Going on Seventeen." The cast included Richard Borzaga, Joyce Albert, Donald Lindroos, Melvin La Rue, Clara Dell Hand, George Varras, Colleen Evans, Jack Nimmo, Tom Burns, Lorine Nigra, Patsy Lemmon, Reameth Jones, Joan Duzik, and Helene Sellers. At the Senior Hop, Lorine Nigra and Kenneth Delgado, two members aboard ship, were chosen "Sweethearts of the Hop." The class was again honored with the election of Tom Burns as president of the student council. On April 5 the Junior Prom, a gala affair, was held in the Reliance gymnasium, which was decorated as an underwater scene. Bernice Iskra was crowned queen of the Prom. Her Majesty's attendants were Lorine Nigra and Lillian Palcher.

After a well deserved vacation, the little band of Pirates, now mighty seniors, started out on their fourth and final year at sea. Tom Burns was again elected as captain; Bernice was the co-captain and Joan Duzik and Colleen Evans again resumed their positions as helper-of-the-boat and keeper-of-the-log respectively.

For the first time in the history of R.H.S. the school paper The Sand, was published in Rock Springs. On December 7 the Senior Hop was held. The theme white Christmas was beautifully carried out.

At the district tournament Richard Borzaga and Tom Burns were chosen for the All-Senior team. "Tiger House" was the name of the play given by the seniors in May. The cast included Joan Duzik, Colleen Evans, Clara Dell Hand, Beverly Graham, Katherine Jelaco, Tom Burns, Carl Rosene, Harry Boyce, Ted Greenhalgh, and Richard Borzaga.

The days rolled swiftly by until that eventful date when the crew found the golden treasure which they had long been seeking. On May 23, Commencement Day, a somewhat serious crew crossed the border line of their school days and headed toward the broader horizon of the world awaiting them.

PIRATES STILL CHAMPIONS

The Reliance Pirates, coached by Jack Smith, came through to win the six-man championship for the ninth consecutive year. This year's edition of the Pirates battled to five straight victories in an undefeated season. Such top teams as Hanna, Lyman and Pinedale were played by the Pirates. Senior lettermen who played their last grid game for Reliance are:

Richard Borzaga
Tom Burns
Bill Connor

Kenneth Delgado
Ted Greenhalgh
Jack Nimmo
George Varras

These boys hope that next year's team will continue on the winning trail and help make a good name for the school of Reliance in football.

SENIOR WILL

We, the senior class, on this day of May 21, in the year of our Lord, 1947, being of sound mind (we hope after those semester exams) do hereby bequeath the following:

To Louis Pirnar, Jumbo to you, Norene Coet wills her typing ability. Now you'll be at the head of the class, Jumbo.

To Richard Caller, Tom Burns wills his razor. For such a little guy you can really raise a fine crop.

To Marie Perakis, Donna Jo Rosene wills her well-known cacke. With your squeak and Donna's cackle the combination should be one worth remembering.

Bill Connor bequeaths his wolfish ways to Jack Boswell—not that you need any.

Jack Nimmo bequeaths his big blue eyes to Glora Iskra—all the better to see Johnny with, huh?

In order to keep an old heirloom in the family, George Varras leaves his jitney to his brother, Spiro. With a new engine and four new tires the thing will be in good running condition once again.

To Micheal Kouris, Donald Lindroos gives his most cherished possession, Bonnie. Take good care of her, Mike, you now have Duck's heart in your hands.

Richard Borzago wills his basketball ability to Bob Matson. We know you'll put it to good use.

To Donna Ghermley, Lorine Nigra wills her Monday absence slip. It comes in mighty handy.

Grace Gregory bequeaths her diamond engagement ring to Helen Buche. This is to tide you over just until you get your own, so you'll get used to the idea.

Don Williams bequeaths his red ticket and stop sign to Mr. Manatos. It will save you many a five dollar bill.

Clara Dell Hand wills the Library, lock, stock and barrel to Shirley Meeks. She hopes you won't have as much trouble with misplaced books as she had.

The Seniors want to will Peachie Piaia to Marlyn Busko with our blessings. Take good care of him, Marlyn.

To Jean Mastrovich, Myrle Kilburn leaves her blonde hair. . . Looks like you're going to need this bottle of peroxide, though.

Since Katherine Jelaco can't leave her cheer-leading ability to just one of the remaining cheerleaders, she bequeaths it to all three, Helen Krm-potich, Shirley Meeks, and Virgil Rizzi. We know all of you will be just as good as Katherine was.

To Mr. Wagner, the senior class wills a funeral flag. Then the bus won't be quite so out of place.

Kenneth Delgado leaves his manly physique to Tony Milonas. But, Tony, now you'll have to grow a little bit the other way.

To Robert Canestrini, Ted Greenhalgh leaves his microscopic glasses. Maybe now you'll be able to pick out your one and only.

Lou Jean Gaylord leaves her quiet disposition to Bob Gormley. This is only a slight hint, Bob.

Bernice leaves her orneriness to Lucille Farmer. Even though you'll be the owner of it, we don't think you can be as mean as she.

Helene Sellers leaves her intelligence to Roy Rosene. Not that you need any.

We wanted Joan Duzik to will Delgado to someone but she absolutely refused.

Carl Rosene wills his height to Bonnie Gormley. Carl doesn't need all of it.

Pete Patterakis gives his vocabulary to Jack Baskey, and Sam Hattori to use between them. We hope you can put it to as good use as Pete did.

Harry "Lemon" Boyce wills his middle name to Richard Canestrini. But we've heard tell that you're not so sour. Now how about that???????

Carolyn Rodda leaves her car to Josephine Baca. Now you'll have something to get you here in case you miss the bus.

Beverly Graham leaves her pleasing personality to Charles Besso. We think you already have a nice one; this is just to help you along.

To Jim Styvar, Joyce Albert bequeaths her natural curly hair. You could do with a few curls, Jim.

And to Mike Kouris, Connor leaves his certificate of fouls. You have a wonderful start, Mike.

Lillian Palcher wills her Pepsodent smile to Buddy Nelson. It's the smile that gets all the pretty girls.
